EZEKIEL W. MUNDY
LIBRARIAN

SYRACUSE N. Y. May 22

Mr. George W. Forbes
Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir;

Your letter of the 19th has been referred to me for answer. I am sorry to say we can give you very little information on the subjects of which you write.

We have Syracuse papers covering part of the period, the Syracuse Daily Courier from 1856, the Daily Journal from 1847, the Daily Standard from 1845. From Dr. W. Hough Mills we learn that the library of Samuel J. May on Anti-slavery was given to Cornell University and as this contained many reports, addresses, tracts and contemporary matter he thought it very likely you could get some information from the Cornell librarian. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Miller, daughter of Gerrit Smith, "Lochland," Geneva, N. Y. also Miss Lizzie Green, Medford, Mass. (daughter of Beriah Green) could, doubtless, give you much more.

Utica, N. Y. the county seat of Oneida County, probably has in its public library some material on the subject.

Very truly yours
